64 Smith St, Welland, ON L3C 4H4, Canada

The Holy Cross Fathers founded Notre Dame College School, a Catholic high school in the Diocese of St. Catharines. In conjunction with the Niagara Catholic District School Board, its mission is to offer secondary students an education within the values, teachings, and traditions of the Catholic Church. Essential to our mission, is to awaken within students their vocations as daughters and sons of God and present clearly the challenge facing every Christian to work for the building of the Reign of God. We strive to create an education community in which cognitive, moral, affective and spiritual growth is promoted and in which the giftedness of each student is celebrated.

St. Mary Catholic ES

1.52 KM away

Kindergarten, Elementary and Middle

120 Plymouth Rd, Welland, ON L3B 3C7, Canada

St. Mary Catholic School was built in 1956. It was one of the first Roman Catholic Schools to open its doors to the Catholic community in Welland. It has served the downtown Welland for over forty-five years and continues to be a vibrant component of the Welland educational community. Our school is also home to one of four Cyberquest 21 Studios. Grades 7 and 8 students within the Welland / Pelham and Lakeshore area attend our Cyberquest Studio throughout the year. The Studio introduces students to broad-based technologies including aerospace, engineering design, electronics, desktop publishing, audio-visual and robotics.
