201 Paradise Rd N, Hamilton, ON L8S 3T3

At Colin Macdonald Community School we believe children need confidence in themselves as learners, tools so they can find the answers to their questions themselves, preparation for life long learning, and in general, a learner-centred approach rather than one that is curriculum driven. It is being increasingly recognized that students learn better when they have real responsibility for their own education. At Colin Macdonald Community School we allow that to happen.

Southern Ontario Collegiate

Private

28 Rebecca St, Hamilton, ON L8R 1B4, Canada

Southern Ontario Collegiate of Canada is a private, university-preparatory, secondary school specializing in preparing international students to meet admission requirements for universities in Canada, the US, UK, Australia, and other prestigious universities around the world. Our philosophy is 'a balance of knowledge and wisdom' which equips our students with the skill sets fundamental to success at university and success at life. Although the student population is growing, our vision is to remain a small school. Class sizes average 15 - 20 students, so it is easier for the teachers to get to know the students, assess their strengths and weaknesses and monitor their progress. Students are not intimidated to ask questions in class or to approach the teachers for further help. Also our small size means that the staff have the ability to collaborate easily, creating connections across the academic team.
