Together we can prepare our 21st century learners for a productive meaningful life, accepting of all those around us, while working together in the image of Jesus Christ. Collectively, we have created an environment where it is safe to challenge and grow. We are proud of the efforts of our talented students as they work to achieve the expectations, and model the image of Jesus. Our students are offered many opportunities to grow as a Catholic school community through sports teams, clubs, extracurricular activities and service initiatives. Our students, emulating the life of St. Francis Xavier himself, demonstrate the call to service through their acts of kindness, continually showing their genuine concern for others.
