Tapleystown PS

4.33 KM away

Public

390 Old Mud St, Stoney Creek, ON L8J 1X1, Canada

Tapleystown Public School is located in East Hamilton on Stoney Creek Mountain. The original one-room stone school house was built in 1881. While many one-room schools in the area were being closed, additions were added to Tapleystown in 1956, 1959, 1964 and again in 1966 to accommodate increasing enrolment. The school is very well established and families of many generations have called Tapleystown their neighbourhood school. Although Tapleystown still retains the atmosphere of a country school, it has also kept pace with modernization. EQAO scores tend to exceed both Board and Provincial standards. Our school is supported this year by a Literacy Improvement Teacher.

Private

795 Hamilton Regional Rd 8, Stoney Creek, ON L8E 5J3, Canada

Cairn Christian School is an inter-denominational independent JK-8 school serving Stoney Creek, Grimsby, and the surrounding area. Cairn pursues instructional excellence that honours our children's abilities and strengths and prepares them to be active citizens in their communities. We serve Christian parents from over thirty different churches who share a common belief that learning from a Christian perspective is important for their children. A Christian worldview shapes what we teach and how we teach. It shapes our view of our students and teachers, and it provides a common ground so that Christian families, our Christian schools, and our area Christian churches can work together to "train up our children in the days of their youth."
